

The College Admissions Journey: Student Perspectives on the Challenges and Opportunities

We surveyed nearly 300 high school students during the pandemic to get their thoughts on the college search and application process from the resources they rely on to gather information to the biggest obstacles and what matters most. Here are the key findings.

Top Six Resources for College Search

What are Students Looking for in the College Search Process?

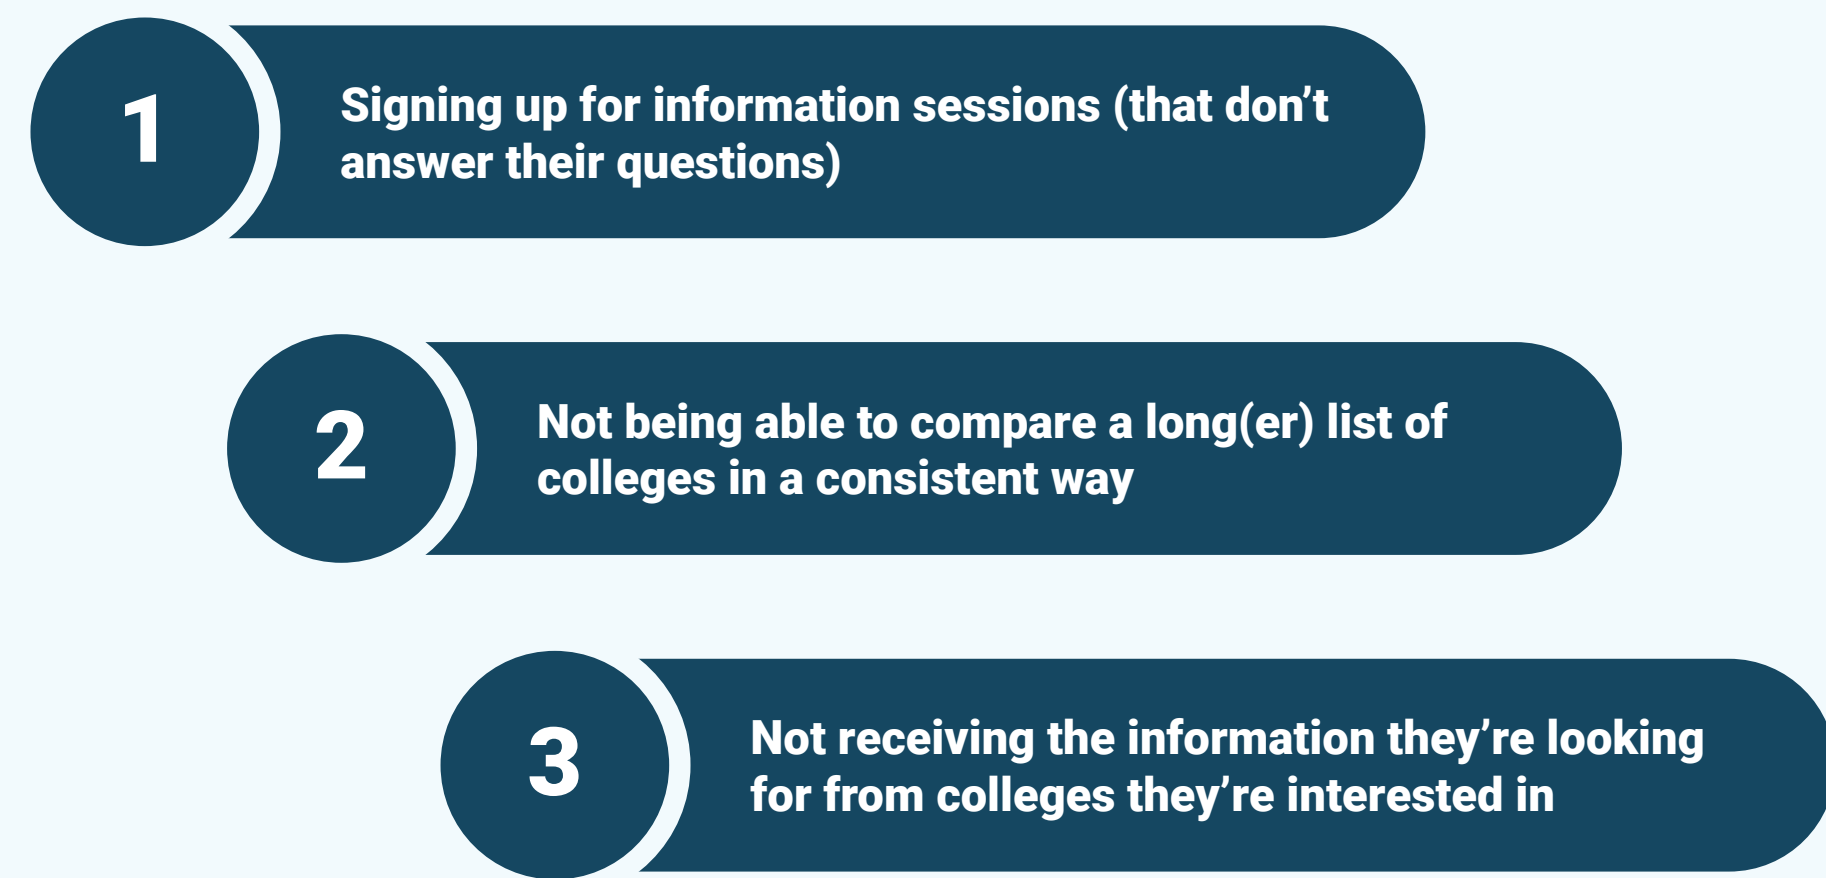

The Six Biggest Challenges Students Face

What Do Students Want More Of?

Three Things Students Are Tired Of

What's Important to Students?

Contact us today to learn more about how we applied this research to create student centered solutions to the college admissions process

Get Started:
www.scoir.com

